

Building on Excellence

THE CAMPAIGN FOR BRATTLEBORO MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Ground broken on June 21st for new BMH Outpatient Building –

Donning their hard hats and wielding the gold shovels to 'break the ground' were BMH VP of Planning Prudence MacKinney, point person responsible for the project; hospital board chair Jeff Morse; BMH Capital Campaign co-chair Mark Richards; BMH President/CEO Barry Beeman; Campaign co-chair, former Sen. Bob Gannett; and Dan Fawcett, trustee of the Thompson Trust.

Chittenden Bank Contributes Large Pledge to Capital Campaign for BMH –

Chittenden Bank recently pledged $110,000 toward the Brattleboro Memorial Hospital capital campaign. Holding the check are former Senator Gannett (l.), BMH Building on Excellence campaign co-chair; and Mary Bourne (c.) and Pat Mangan, both from Chittenden Bank. Looking on from behind are BMH President/CEO Barry G. Beeman and the capital campaign co-chair Mark Richards. Standing (l.) are Dee Lemnah and Ray O'Connor (r.), with The Chittenden Services Group. Hospital Executive Director of Development Ellen Smith (far r.) also looks on.
